THE INDIAN SCARE.

It is Growing More Serious Than Ever.

AN UPRISING ALMOST CERTAIN.

All the Peaceable Indians flocking into the Reservation which is taken as a sign that trouble is sure to follow.

Latest from the Frontier.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—A Pierre, S. Dak, special to The Tribune says: For the first time during the Indian scare of several weeks, during the people of Pierre have cause for serious alarm. Heretofore the people here have treated all reports of the Indian uprising with a certain degree of amusement. Scotty Phillips and Charles Wuldrum, two ranchers who are well known all over the west, being cattle kings on the late res ryan lands, together with many other big cattlemen, arrived in the city in fast haste, bring word of the trouble brewing twenty-five miles south of them on the White river, and have come in for advice with the governor and to see what can be done in the way of securing assistance in the event of an outbreak.

Both these men have married Indian women and have always had the closest relations with all Indians. They have had a long interview with Governor Millette who knows them well.

They report that the Indians are now engaged in killing cattle belonging to ranchers by the score, but it is their manner of killing the cattle more than the number that shows points of unkindness in their character to one who is familiar with Indian character. In some places they found a carcass with arrows in its body, which is as much as to say an Indian with a bad heart did this and what are you going to do about it. Indians who were formerly smiling and friendly and would converse, are now surly looking, dunus as oysters, and carry their belts full of cartridges and an excellent Winchester over their shoulder.

All the semi-civilized, or good Indians, they claim, have gone into the agencies, which is considered a sure pointer that trouble is at hand and they know it. The seat of war is Short Bull's camp which is located south of the white river in the Pine Ridge agency a few miles from the mouth of Pass Creek. Here they claim are 1500 lodges containing, at least that many men, besides women and children. Short Bull following are of the ugly wilder class who have the firmest sort of faith in the new Messiah craze.

The serious feature of this situation is that the order has gone out to the army officers to capture the leaders of the Messiah craze. The army is now marching in the southern portion of the south reservation, and the followers of Short Bull swear that if any attempt is made to capture him there will be bloodshed forthwith, and Phillips and Wuldrum are sure they mean what they say. The result is that the settlers in Nowlin, Jackson and Seibatch counties to the north will be left unprotected, and long before troops can be got into that section the Indians will scatter in small squads and burn and pillage and massacre settlers and drive off their herds, that is if they follow up their former customs, that will be the certain result. This is the new phase of the Indian trouble as it has taken shape the past few days.

A Standing Rock Agency, N. Dak., special to The Tribune says: Lieut. Crowder, of the Eighth cavalry, with the four men of his troop who were detailed last Sunday to make a tour of the country on the opposite side of the river and below the agency to ascertain if any Indians were there causing trouble, as had been reported, have returned and report having seen no Indians, and that the people are slowly returning to their homes, although some have gone for food. No news was received from Sitting Bull's camp.

MILES' INFORMATION.

Scotty Phillips' Story Sent to Division Headquarters.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Gen. Miles has received the following telegram from Governor Millette, of South Dakota, dated Pierre, S. Dak.:

"Scotty Phillips, a cattleman, living at the mouth of the Grand Stone Butte Creek, brings me the following intelligence. Phillips is a very cool, courageous and reliable man and was a good scout throughout the Sioux and Cheyenne troubles. He reports eight days ago, five lodges, containing twelve bucks, armed with Winchesters and laden with ammunition, camped at his house, going from Rosebud to a large camp which is formed on White river, at the mouth of Pass Creek."

"The Indians were surely and defiant in manner. One of them said he had seen the time when they used to beat out the brains of children and drink women's blood, and that the time was coming when they would do it again. In the last few days Phillips has had twenty cattle killed by the Indians. Three half-breeds from White river stopped at Phillip's house Monday night and said they expected to find the settlements destroyed when they got home. Phillips says everybody who has been among the Indians any length of time, without exception, say that there is going to be an uprising and that very quickly."

"The dance at Short Bull's headquarters at Pass creek has been running for month, and Phillips thinks it is a point fixed for concentration for all the bands. He thinks there are 1,000 lodges and 1,500 armed warriors there now. The Indians say they will not give up Short Bull, and will fight when the soldiers try to arrest them. Indian runners pass Phillips' house night and day traveling between Standing Rock and the camp on Pass creek."

Governor Millette concludes his telegram with an urgent request for the establishment of posts at Chamberlain and Forest City.

After perusing the dispatch Gen. Miles said that Gens. Ruger and Brooke were making all preparations possible to protect the lives and property of settlers.

Gen. Miles will leave at once for Washington to meet with the Indian commissioner, and directly afterward will visit the seat of the Indian troubles.

Gen. Miles will leave at once for Washington to meet with the Indian commissioner, and directly afterward will visit the seat of the Indian troubles.

OMAHA, Nov. 27.—The first actual move of public importance at Pine Ridge was made Wednesday, when Agent Royer announced that the beef issue would be postponed. How long it will be put off is not stated, but the desire is to get all the Indians into the agency before giving out the beef. There are still several thousand Pine Ridge Indians who have not reported. Those of them who are inclined to hostility are not suffering for beef as every day reports come in of animals slaughtered by the Indians.

Thousands of cattle range on the reservation during the summer and fall, and of these the Indians are killing many. A number are reported as wantonly slain. In several places carcasses have been found with arrows sticking in them. While this state of affairs continues there is little probability of Agent Royer's latest move having any effect unless it be to make the friendly Indians at the agency restless and dissatisfied.

It is now conceded that Royer's first mistake was in calling for troops before there was any need of them. This has brought about the danger of fighting. Troops cannot now be withdrawn without disregarding the agent's authority, and it is feared if the tension is continued much longer the young men who are inclined to fight will go off in small bands. Reports at army headquarters here confirm the statement that Gen. Brooke still deems the situation serious.

BRAZILIAN BOATS.

Arrival of Their Squadron in New York Harbor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The tug Starbuck, with Senhor Mattoso, Senhor Guimaraes, Mr. A. DeBarros, Mr. G. F. Bassett and Hon. Charles R. Flint, on board, steamed down to quarantine at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning to meet the Brazilian squadron. At 9 o'clock they were seen escorted by the Dolphin and Yorktown coming out of the mist that hung over the waters of the lower bay. The Starbuck rounded under the stern of the "Aquadabu" and saluted, which was returned.

At 9:20 as the Brazilian flagship came abreast at Fort Hamilton the boom of the first gun fired in salute to the visiting squadron was heard. Scarcely had the echo died away when boom went a gun from Fort Wadsworth. At each fort the garrisons were drawn up in line on the ramparts, and the Brazilian flags fluttering from the flagstaffs of the forts were dipped.

The fort continued firing alternately until each had given the National salute of twenty-one guns. Then the yards of the "Aquadabu" were manned, her colors dipped and the salute returned gun for gun at intervals of ten seconds each. Her band on the quarter deck played "Red, White and Blue." The corvette Guanabara also saluted as she came abreast of the forts with the National salute of twenty-one guns.

From this point clear up to the anchorage in the North river at Twenty-third street, the passage of the squadron was enlivened by a continuous salute of whistles from the many passing steamers, ferry and tug boats. Passing Castle William the visitors were given a salute of fifteen guns, which was promptly returned. Off Twenty-third street the vessels came to anchor just below where the cruiser Philadelphia lay.

Then came the steam launches from the ships of the white squadron, bearing the representatives of the different admirals. Lieut. Pall paid his respects to Rear Admiral Da Silviera on behalf of Admiral Gherardi; Lieut. Stanton did the same for Admiral Walker and Lieut. Norton appeared for Rear Admiral Braine.

Senhor Valente the Brazilian minister at Washington, and Dr. DeCorte of the Brazilian legation also boarded the Aquidabu at the same time. The whole party was conducted below where they were received by Admiral Da Silviera. They were introduced to the Brazilian admiral and each one presented the compliments of his commander. General introductions and a short social talk followed.

The naval officers left the ship after half an hour's call and the other visitors soon followed. At 1 o'clock Admiral Da Silviera accompanied by Dr. Valente went ashore and made his first call on Admiral Walker. From there he went to the Brooklyn navy yard and paid his respects to Rear Admiral Braine, at the commandant's house.

Then he returned to the foot of West Twenty-third street and was rowed to the Philadelphia, where Admiral Gherardi was called upon. Wednesday evening the Brazilian admiral and some of his officers dined with Admiral Walker at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

The climax in golf has come in England. It is not simply men who work chiefly with their brains—judges, clergymen, artists, journalists, members of parliament, and novelists—that have taken to it almost en masse, and are never weary of singing its praises as the sole perfect cure for dyspepsia, the meagrim and worry. Young athletes are abandoning cricket and football for golf, and are competing with each other as to who can "drive the longest ball."

LIBERALS DISMAYED

Parnell Refuses to Give Up the First Leadership.

PRESSES FROM ALL SIDES.

Nearly all Think There is No Hope for the Irish Cause Unless Parnell Steps Down and Out—Various Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Liberals are immensely dismayed at Mr. Parnell's decision to retain the Irish leadership in parliament. They have not yet given up all hope of altering his determination, and the greatest pressure is being brought to bear upon him and upon the few who are supposed to have any influence with him, to secure, if possible, a reconsideration of his intention as announced Wednesday.

A canvass was made in the lobby of the house, with the views of a large number of Liberal members being obtained. The large majority of these members agreed that it will be useless to think of winning in a general election, handicapped by an alliance with a party headed by a notorious adulterer. The fact was generally expressed that the government will take advantage of this fact to dissolve parliament and appeal to the country while the feeling against Mr. Parnell is yet hot.

It is feared that the coming by election for Bassett, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Beckett, will reveal a marked failing of the Liberal vote. If so there can hardly be any doubt left that the government will take the course referred to. The blindness of the Nationalists in singling upon Mr. Parnell's retention of the leadership is looked upon by experienced politicians with misgivings, and as evidence that the members of that party have lost their heads entirely.

Many Liberals declare that they will not act or vote in conjunction with the Irish members so long as Mr. Parnell is at their head, no matter what the Liberal party caucus may decide upon as the cause to be pursued by the party as a whole.

One of the Irish members is said to have prepared a long list of the domestic misdeeds of English statesmen and members of the royalty and nobility, which he is ready to launch out under cover of the privilege of parliament, should the O'Shea case be mentioned. As many of these cases have never been published, but could be published without risk of libel in a report of parliamentary proceedings, there is much quaking in the higher circles of British society.

Royal Message Read.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 27.—The royal message announcing the death of King William III, and the accession to the throne of Princess Wilhelmina was read Wednesday in parliament. The members rose to receive the message, after the reading of which the president of the chamber made a brief address. He expressed the profound sorrow felt by the country over the demise of the king, who, he said, had never failed to maintain the constitutional rights and liberties of the people.

He knew that parliament would honor the king's memory by proving their devotion to the young queen and her mother, who had been bequeathed as precious pledges to the nation. Let the national union be shown by a common reconciliation and let legislature endeavor to smooth the path of the two queens and do all in its power to make the performance of their duties an easy task. Upon the conclusion of the presidents remarks the house adjourned.

The body of the king was placed in a coffin tonight. The queen was not present. The funeral will take place on Dec. 4.

The Czar Will Investigate.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Advices from St. Petersburg state that the czar has ordered an investigation of the stories regarding the kamerads, or apartments where men and women are temporarily imprisoned at Tomsk, Siberia. It is said that the condition of affairs in the kamerads is horrible; that the women prisoners, many of them of respectable training, are at the mercy of the guards and also of any prisoners who bribe the guards for admission to the female kamerads. The empress is said to have prompted the investigation.

Germany's Designs on Holland.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Official organs in St. Petersburg and Moscow, already express apprehension of the possible designs of Germany on the independence of Holland, and one Russian newspaper quotes the remark once ascribed to Bismarck, that the Netherlands ports were natural outlets of the commerce of Germany. Resistance on the part of the vessel from all blame, finding that the casualty and consequent loss of life were unavoidable.

CHARLEY ROSS FOUND.

The Latest is That He is Locked in a Boston Prison.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The World's special from Philadelphia says: It is more than probable that Charlie Ross, the long lost kidnapped son of Christian Ross, has been found. The detective bureau at New York police headquarters seemed reasonably convinced that they have discovered the boy. Charles A. Grant, chief clerk of police commissioners of New York, diligently worked the clew down to this point where Inspector Byrnes was consulted, and the Vidocq of New York police apparently thinks it worth active efforts.

About three months ago Mr. Grant received information from a liver stable keeper that he knew a woman who had told him that she knew where Charles Ross was to be found and that he was alive and had been brought up by relatives of one of his abductors. Mr. Grant investigated the story and found the boy referred to. He was living with a family named McChristy at 107 Park avenue. Grant ingratiated himself into the confidence of a chum of the boy, who by adroit questioning prompted by Mr. Grant, learned things which convinced him he was on the right track.

The boy admitted to his chum that McChristy's were not his parents, and declared that he was Charlie Ross. He described almost accurately what was known of the abduction, about being taken away in a carriage and being kept on a boat for many days. When asked why he did not go to his parents, he replied: "My father is dead and my mother is in the lunatic asylum." The boy was known to his companions as Charlie McChristy. He is fair-faced and has light hair, with curly clustering around his forehead. He has well shaped features and is much more delicate looking than other New York lads brought up in the same social atmosphere. He has been a very good boy until recently, when by some circumstances he was forced into bad company.

Recently Charlie ran away from home and he could not be located until a few days ago, when his chum got a letter from him dated Boston, in which he stated that he had been arrested for stealing a valise. He said that a boy, whose acquaintance he had made, had committed the theft, and that by force of circumstances he had been arrested for the crime. Inspector Byrnes sent one of his men to Boston with Charlie's chum, whose name is Willie Tate, to see Charlie McChristy and to obtain his release, pending an investigation as to whether he is the long lost boy.

A special The World from Boston, in this connection, says: Thomas Adams, of the New York Central squad, in company with a young man of 18, arrived in this city shortly before midnight. They were very mysterious in their actions but it was learned that they had come for the purpose of looking at a young man who lies in prison charged with larceny, and who is supposed to be Charlie Ross. The detective's plan is to have the boy with him, who is a New York companion of the boy in prison, gain admission to the prison and see the supposed Charlie Ross and attempt to identify him by a series of questions which have been furnished by Mr. C. K. Ross for the purpose.

HONG KONG AND YOKOHAMA.

Over Hundred Houses Burned—British Yacht Lost—Other Items.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—The steamer Gaelic has arrived in port, bringing Hong Kong and Yokohama advices as follows:

A fire at Canton on Oct. 25, which raged for nine hours, destroyed over a hundred houses.

The British yacht Nyanza, the property of Capt. Dewar, which left Plymouth in July, 1887, for a voyage around the world, having on board the owner and his wife and a crew of nineteen, has been totally wrecked on an island in the Caroline group. All on board were saved. The natives looted the wrecked vessel.

The Chinese man of war which was last reported off the coast at Cape Brunet, succeeded in getting into port. Her stem was broken, her ram driven in and her bottom pireed by rocks.

A naval court of inquiry in the case of the British ship Lizzie C. Troop, which was lost off Loo Choo Island in September, has exonerated the officers of the vessel from all blame, finding that the casualty and consequent loss of life were unavoidable.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 27.—An attempt to wreck a passenger on the Wisconsin Central road was made early Wednesday morning near Stevens Point. Passenger train No. 3, northbound, ran off an open switch, ditching the engine and baggage car and injuring the engineer and fireman. Examination proved that the switch had been tampered with. The real object is not known, but was probably robbery in the event of a general smash-up.

Strikers Arrested.

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 27.—As a result of the strike on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road an officer arrived here from Chicago and arrested John T. Plasneck and Dennis McCurdy, two members of the conference committee of strikers. J. O. Stokely, the other member, is now under arrest at Chicago. It is the intention of the railroad company to prosecute them under the conspiracy act.

Fishing Cruisers Work.

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—The fisheries protection cutter cruiser, according to the minister of marine, has been doing good work this season in Georgia Bay. He states that reports were received by the marine department that a great deal of illegal fishing was being done by American fishing boats and the cruiser was despatched to suppress it. She succeeded in seizing a number of nets and boats.

Special Registration.

The registration law provides that "when by virtue of the city charter or any special law, an election or vote is ordered to be held or taken in the city of Maysville at any other time than the regular election in January then the Council or other body or persons so ordering said election or vote shall at the same time fix a day for the registration of those persons entitled to vote thereat whose names have not been recorded on the registration books of that year, and shall require the same to be published in like manner as the time and place of said election or vote are required by law to be published. Registrations under this section shall be known as special registrations, and any person so registered shall be entitled to vote at all elections held prior to the next general registration."

Section Ten says that on the day of such special registration, "the registration officers shall attend at their several places of registration and shall register the names of all persons appearing before them who may be entitled to vote at the election for which the registration is held, and whose names are not already on the register for that year."

It will thus be seen that those voters whose names are now on the books will not have to register on Dec. 2d, and those who registered on that date will be allowed to vote at both the special election on Dec. 15th and the regular election the first Monday of January.

If you wish to do something to advance the industrial interests of the city, vote for that appropriation.

The Con. Con. has adopted a resolution authorizing the State Auditor to draw his warrant on the Treasurer for the immediate payment of $300 to each of the principals in the McChord-Lewis contest.

The registration law of Louisville provides for "affidavit registration;" that is, voters who were sick or absent from the city on regular and special registration days or else had sickness in their families can have their names added to the lists on making affidavit to that effect. The Maysville law ought to contain such a clause, but it doesn't.

The Lexington Transcript is urging the citizens of that place to take stock in the association to establish tobacco warehouses there. It says such a warehouse would necessarily bring a large amount of business to the city, and benefit every class of business men. The same argument is applicable here, and we are glad to say the citizens of Maysville will extend substantial aid to a company to establish a warehouse at this place.

Under the new Constitution nine State officials will be chosen by the people. The term of office is four years. They are the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Auditor, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Register of the Land Office and Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, and only one of them—Auditor—is made eligible for re-election. This is an excellent provision. The date of the election will likely be changed from the first Monday of August to the second Tuesday of November.

A Candid Admission.

It is all very well to rejoice in the prosperity and growth of the new Northwest, for there sound views upon the tariff generally prevail, and there progress does not interfere with ourselves, but the advance of the South is to a great extent at our expense. Her cotton mills will compete with those of New England and the middle States, and her furnaces are supplying pig iron at rates which makes it impossible to run those of Pennsylvania. If the Democrats had never been allowed to regain control of the State Governments of the South, Northern capital would never have embarked in the development of Southern coal and iron; and the surest and speediest way to put a stop to this competition from men who are political enemies, as well as our commercial rivals, is to carry through and enforce measures like the Lodge election law. They won't like it, and some of them will be fools enough to make trouble about it; and if we can once more get them into the condition they were before 1876, we won't hear any more about cheap iron and cheap cotton goods from the South. They will have other things to think about.—Philadelphia Press.

This is a candid admission from this rabid Republican journal. It is in line with that declaration of Speaker Reed, and discloses the true object of the Lodge bill.

And so these hypocrites who profess such a great love for the industries of this country would use the National Congress to strike a blow at the progress of the South.

The South will get there, all the same. Her progress can not be checked. Her industries have too strong a foot-hold.

Republican leaders should heed the late warning. They heard from the people recently, and if the Lodge bill is adopted they will hear again.

For the Farmer.

R. P. Kindig, of York, Pa., bought 26 yearling steers from O. H. Chenault, of Madison County, of $100 each.

It is said that the thoroughbred yearlings sold at auction in America this year number 431. They brought the round sum of $388,000, an average of over $900.

The Melbourne Cup, in Australia recently, is one of the richest, if not the very richest, racing stakes in the world, the Victoria Club adding $50,000 to the stakes, Bosque Bonita is the fastest trotter in Europe, having secured a record of 2:19½ there. This is the handy mare that Gu-Macy campaigned so successfully the first year of the Blue Grass Circuit. She trotted at the Maysville fair.

Says the Lebanon Enterprise: "Sam Clements raised 700 heads of cabbage on one-half acre of ground and sold them for $95. The heads are the largest we have ever seen. Some were near the size of a half bushel. Mr. Clements paid at the rate of $16 per acre for the land, so it will be seen that he made enough on one-half an acre to buy six acres."

River News

The Cincinnati packet St. Lawrence, the Augusta packet M. P. Wells and the Vanceburg packet Silver Wave are almost as regular as trains in their arrival and departure.

Up: Sherley at 9 p. m. for Portsmouth and Bistona for Pomeroy and Keystone State for Pittsburg after midnight. Down: Andes this evening and Telegraph to-night.

The new Henry M. Stanley will pass down next Monday in place of the Louise. The Louise will take the place of the Lizzie Bay in the Pittsburg and Charleston trade while the latter is being rebuilt.

There are 452 Government lights on the Ohio between Pittsburg and Cairo, 33 on the Kanawha, 40 on the Tennessee, a few on the Cumberland, and none at Louisville—not even a gas light on the levee after midnight.

A Reporter's Predicament.

A reporter up at Winchester, accompanied by his sweetheath, drove out in the suburbs and called at a well-known family residence where a new baby had been born a few weeks before, to report a party which had subsequently been given. The hostess met them at the door, and, after the usual salutations, the reporter asked after the baby's health. The lady, who is quite deaf, and suffering with the ague, thought he was asking about her cold, and told him that, though she usually had one every winter, this was the worst she ever had; it kept her awake at nights a good deal at first, and confined her to bed. Then, noticing that the scribe was getting pale and nervous, she said she could tell by his looks that he was going to have one just like hers, and asked him to go in and sit down.—Exchange.

The Branch Penitentiary.

The State Sinking Fund Commissioners have taken the necessary steps looking to the control and use of the branch penitentiary at Eddyville. The officers elected to take charge of the institution are: Gen. H. B. Lyon, of Eddyville, Warden; Dr. Ormsby Gray, of Louisville, Clerk, and Dr. J. O. Thomas, of Hopkinsville, Physician. The salary of the Warden is $2,000 per annum and term of office four years, unless sooner removed by the Board for good and sufficient reasons. The other officers, whose salaries are $1,200 each, are subject to the pleasure of the Board.

Teacher Turned Horse-Thief.

Says the Cincinnati Enquirer: "About five weeks ago F. P. Davis, of Felicity, Ohio, an agent for the Gaskell Library Club of Chicago, hired a horse and buggy for a few days from Mathers & Henry, livery men of Carlisle. He has not returned since then, but has been heard of in Paris and Cynthiana. Mathers & Henry offer $50 reward for Davis and the rig. Davis was a school teacher at Germantown last winter. He is 30 years of age, of dark complexion and five feet eight inches in height. The horse is a bay, driven to a Columbus side-bar buggy."

Paralyzed His Arm.

[Philadelphia Record.]

C. Hagermann, a well-known resident of Morristown, has lost the use of his right hand in a singular manner. He went to bed as usual one night a week ago and fell asleep with his right hand under his head. On awakening in the morning he could not raise his arm. It was paralyzed, and all efforts thus far to put the blood in circulation have failed. It is thought it will be months before he will be able to use his hand again.

AN ORDINANCE

An authorizing a vote of the legal voters of the City of Maysville, Ky., to be taken on December 15, 1890, on the question of the said city appropriating the sum of twenty thousand dollars, to be used in making donations or gifts to manufacturers, in locating their plant here, thereby advancing the interests of the city, and to its benefit generally.

WHEREAS, By an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, incorporating the city of Maysville, approved January 31, 1853, the Board of Councilmen is authorized to adopt such laws and ordinances for the city's improvement as they shall from time to time deem expedient, and an amendment thereto, approved March 9, 1854, the said Board of Councilmen shall have no power to create any additional or increased debt, in the name of the city, or to bind the city to pay any bonds, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness, in the name or behalf of said city; and in all cases where this prohibition is violated each member of said Board authorizing the creation of such debt, or the issue of such evidence of indebtedness, shall be held individually liable for the payment thereof.

Provided: That said Board of Councilmen may create a debt or debt, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, in the aggregate, which name has been given, and authorized by a vote of the majority of the voters of said city voting upon a proposition submitted by the Council; and provided said Council, when said debt is created, shall provide the means by taxation for the payment of the interest thereof annually, and for the extinguishment of the principal in fifteen years.

AND WHEREAS, James H. Hall, T. W. Davis, A. Davis, and V. W. Bell, Commissioners from the City Commission of Maysville, Ky., a corporation organized for the purpose of promoting the commercial interests and the general welfare of the city of Maysville, came before the City Council praying the submission of a vote to the legal voters of said city on the question as to whether the city shall be authorized and empowered to create a debt of twenty thousand dollars to be used in making donations or gifts to manufacturers, in locating their plant here, thereby advancing the interests of the city in building up her population and adding to her taxable wealth.

And the matter having been submitted, discussed and considered by the Board of Councilmen of the city of Maysville, composed of the Chairman and a majority of the Councilmen, it is ordered that the question as to whether said sum of twenty thousand dollars shall be authorized and given for the interest on such debt, shall be submitted to the vote of the legal voters of the city of Maysville, upon the following terms and conditions, that an election be held in several wards of the city of Maysville on the 15th day of December, 1890, upon the proposition to have donated or given the said sum of twenty thousand dollars, to be used as hereinbefore named, and that said sum be paid by issuing and selling the bonds of the city of Maysville, in the amount of twenty thousand dollars, and to bear interest at the rate of six percent, per annum, payable annually, from the date of said bonds, as they may be issued from time to time, and that said bonds are to be due and payable fifteen years after date. Said bonds shall be signed by the President of the Board of Councilmen and attested by the Clerk of the city, under the seal thereof, and the fifteen coupons attached for the interest on said bonds shall be cut off and left, and each coupon upon each shall be made payable to J. F. Harbour or bearer, at the Bank of Maysville, in the city of Maysville, Ky. And it is further ordered that the present Ways and Means Committee of the city of Maysville, E. A. Robinson, Robert Ficklin, C. B. Pearce, Jr., M. C. Russell, J. I. Gallusbury, J. C. Peeler, L. U. Blattner and W. B. Frank, are hereby appointed to draw up a contract for the manufacture of a certain article, to be paid for by the city, or the money for which they may sell, herein authorizing them, or others that might hereafter be appointed in their stead, to do and to give same to such manufacturers as may be induced to more or locate their plants here, that would be of great benefit to our city, or redound most to its interest; and at such time that said committee shall report to the Board of Councilmen that contract can be made with any manufacturer acceptable to the city, or the money for which they may sell, herein authorizing them, or others that might hereafter be appointed in their stead, to do and to give same to such manufacturers as may be induced to more or locate their plants here, that would be of great benefit to our city, or redound most to its interest; Big Blaze at Winchester.

At 2:15 this morning fire was discovered in the planing mill of Hagan Bros. & Co., situated near the depot at Winchester, and in less than an hour the mill was a complete loss.

This is the mill erected by Hagan Bros. two years ago at a cost of about $15,000, and was sold two weeks since to the present firm at Sheriff's sale for $6,000.

Owing to the inflammable material of the mill, the firemen were powerless to render much aid, and for a time the portion of the city was in much danger.

The dry house, containing a large stock of finished lumber, was saved by the effective work of the firemen, as was also the lumber in the yard.

This is said to have been one of the finest equipped mills in Kentucky. There was an insurance of $1,000 on the building and lumber.

A Girl's Heroism Remembered.

The crew of C. & O. pay train have presented Miss Mary Winter of Springville a handsome gold badge for heroism in saving the life of her father Sept. 23rd. Mr. Winter is deaf, and was walking along the track in front of his home the day named when the pay train came in view. The shrill danger whistle was sounded. The engineer expecting the man to get out of the way never slowed up, and Winter would have been ground to death under the wheels had not his daughter rushed out and pushed him off the track, just in time to save him. The train crew were witnesses of her heroic deed and consenting together concluded that such acts should not go unrewarded, and she now wears the gold badge presented by them.

INTERNAL REVENUES

Remarkable Increase in Receipts During the Year.

COMMISSIONER MASON'S REPORT.

Comparisons Made With Previous Reports.
A Steady Growth of Internal Revenue.
Cost of Collections—Recommendations to Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The report of the commission of internal revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1890, is a most satisfactory exhibit of that branch of the treasury service. Not only was there a gain of $12,000,000 in the receipts of the year as compared with those of the year previous, but the estimates of the commissioner for the current fiscal year is that the receipts from all sources of internal revenue will show a further increase of $3,000,000, or a total of receipts of $145,000,000 for 1891.

In making this estimate Commissioner Mason says he has carefully kept in view the reduction made in the tax on tobacco and snuff and the repeal of the law imposing special taxes on dealers in tobacco, which will amount during the year 1891 to about $4,000,000.

It was upon the known steady growth of internal revenue receipts that part of the calculation was made in the treasury department, that there would be sufficient money to meet all expenditures of the government, notwithstanding the cry about a deficiency. For the past four months the increase in customs receipts over the corresponding period of last year was $12,000,000, while the increase in internal revenue receipts for the same length of time was over $3,000,000. The increase in receipts from internal revenue exceed the estimates of the commissioner last year nearly $8,000,000, and for the past six years there has been a gradually enlarging total, running from $112,000,000 in 1885 to $142,000,000 in 1890.

To show exactly what the internal revenue bureau has accomplished, figures from the commissioner's reports are given. The total collections for the last fiscal year were $142,595,696, as compared with the total collections for 1889, which were $130,994,434, an increase of $11,700,262. In 1889 there were 91,133,550 gallons produced. In 1890 the production was increased to 111,101,738 gallons, a gain of 19,968,188 gallons. The receipts from tobacco, cigars, snuff, etc., for the fiscal year of 1890 were $33,959,991, an increase over 1889 of $2,092,130. The beer product also shows a remarkable growth. From 25,119,853 barrels in 1889 there was an advance to 27,561,944 barrels in 1890, an increased production of 2,442,091 barrels. The oleomargarine business is the only industry connected with the internal revenue that does not seem to be enlarging. The receipts for the past year were but $78,291, a falling off from the year previous of $107,958.

While the receipts from all sources show such a gratifying improvement Commissioner Mason is able to make the remarkable statement that the cost of collection for the past year was $90,617 less than in 1889, with a total of $4,095,110. Getting into details the commissioner shows that the number of gallons of spirits gauged during the fiscal year was 324,175,208, an increase over the previous year of 35,257,741 gallons at a cost of $752,51, a decrease of $18,207. A better indication of economical administration and the splendid efficiency of the internal revenue service under the present commissioner could not be given.

The growth in the production of spirits is accounted for in great part by the increased number of distilleries operated during the past fiscal year. While in 1889 there were 4,399 distilleries in operation, in 1890 there were more or 6,211, 1,862 more. It might be supposed that the pay of storekeepers would be increased by this showing, but such is not the fact. The saving in this item alone is $36,015, with a total for 1890 of $1,184,442. Another evidence of economical management is shown in the amount paid for salaries and expenses of collectors' deputies and salaries in collectors' offices. This total for the year ending 1890 was $1,747,300, which was cut down to $1,723,597 in 1890, a decrease of $23,763.

The only recommendation appearing in the commissioner's report is that in regard to the bounty on sugar, Secretary of Agriculture Rusk, in his report recently issued, complained that the tariff bill had turned this duty over to the treasury department, instead of to the agricultural department, where it properly belonged, and Commissioner Mason agrees with Secretary Rusk that the agricultural department being better equipped for the purpose, should ascertain and pay this bounty. The commissioner says the internal revenue bureau has none of the machinery required to execute the law. It is simply a collection office.

It will be necessary to make a chemical analysis in all cases where bounty is claimed, and this will require the services of a large number of chemists of considerable experience. Only one chemist and microscopist are now employed in the internal revenue bureau, while the department of agriculture, in addition to having a number of chemists, has given special attention to the culture of sugar-producing plants and the methods of manufacture. In view of these facts the commissioner suggests that congress be recommended to amend the law as to require the sugar bounty to be ascertained and paid by the secretary of agriculture. If the internal revenue bureau is to remain charged with the duty, an additional force will have to be provided to fully protect the interests of the government.

Killed and Robbed by Highwaymen.

MERIDEN, Miss., Nov. 27.—S. B. Gough, aged 65, was robbed, and then killed by two negro highwaymen, nine miles from this place, Wednesday night. His son, aged 44, and a man named Tatnum were fired at and slightly wounded by the robbers, but succeeded in escaping to the woods. The people in the neighborhood are after the robbers, and short work will be made of them if caught.

UNITED STATES CENSUS.
Corrected Returns Place the Entire Population at 62,622,260.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Superintendent Porter has completed his final determination of the population statistics of the country. The total differs by 141,710 from that contained in the bulletin issued from the census bureau on Oct. 28. This change is due to the correction of errors of what is termed the first or rough count and the addition of names ascertained to have been omitted from the enumeration. The verified population of the United States in 1890 is 62,622,260.

DESTRUCTION BY FIRE.

Burglars Rob a Safe and Then Burn the Building—Other Losses.

HEBRON, Nov. 27.—An incendiary fire early Tuesday morning caused a loss of $4,000. Eight buildings were destroyed. The origin of the fire was unknown until late in the afternoon, when in looking through the ruins, the safe of Bryant, Dowd & Company, was uncovered. Upon examination it was discovered that two holes had been drilled in the door, and that it had been forced open. It is supposed that burglars entered the building and after riding the safe fired the building to their work.

The firm of Bryant, Dowd & Company is a wealthy one and their safe had about $12,000 in currency, notes and securities. The firm's losses aggregate about $20,000. They are only insured for $1,500. The other losses are as follows: G. C. Mosier, $8,000; J. E. Bryant, $4,000; James White, $3,500; Karcher & McIntyre, $2,000; Hogan & Fisher, $4,000; no insurance; William White, $5,000.

Thirty-Two Families Homeless.

BAYONNE, N. J., Nov. 27.—Four three story frame houses in this place were burned early Wednesday morning, rendering thirty-two families homeless. No lives were lost but there were many narrow escapes. The flames spread so rapidly that most of the tenants had to leave in their night clothes, but they were provided with clothing and shelter by neighbors. The loss is about $80,000, which is widely distributed. The fire started in a cigar store kept by a Mrs. Gifford, and was caused, it is alleged, by the upsetting of a lamp during a carousal in her apartments. The woman has disappeared.

Planing Mill Burned.

HUNTINGTON, Pa., Nov. 27.—Fire destroyed the entire plant of the Cottage planing mill, here, together with 80,000 feet of lumber and 1,000 finished doors. Loss $40,000; insurance $12,000.

Street Car Equipment Burned.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 27.—The entire street car equipment of this city, including mules, cars, stables and other buildings, was burned Wednesday morning. Loss, $60,000.

Hotel Destroyed.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 27.—Fire Wednesday morning destroyed the Northern Pacific hotel and the buildings of the Oregon Pottery company. Loss, $150,000; fully insured.

PRISONERS' FATES.

Isaac Smith May Get a Respite but Henry Poppy Will Hang.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 27.—The United Press representative is in possession of exclusive information which at least warrants the prediction that Isaac Smith, the Pike county man sentenced to hang early Friday morning, will not die on the gallows according to program. When the case was last brought before the governor he refused to interfere with the sentence, but stated to Smith's attorney that he would not let the man hang if certain evidence could be produced.

At a late hour last night, one of the detectives in the case told the United Press that the evidence required by the governor had been secured and there was no doubt in his mind that the hanging would be declared off. The detective refused to say anything as to the nature of the evidence, further than to state that it implicated others in the crime and had been obtained within the last few hours.

Henry Bopp, the Stark county man who cut a saloon keeper's throat, will be executed shortly after midnight tomorrow morning.
